

Interpersonal Relations Workshop

University of Birmingham
12th-13th June 2023

Monday 12th June

- 9am-10.10am James Laing, University of Edinburgh
'Amour propre'
- 10.30-11.40 Silvia Caprioglio Panizza, University of Pardubice
'Understanding each other across morally impossible worlds'
- 12pm-1.10pm Cathy Mason, Central European University
'Friendship and moving on from wrongdoing'
- 2.10-3.20 Daniel Telech, Lund University
'Invitations: their structure, normativity, and value'
- 3.50-5pm Sophie Côte, New York University
'Ambivalence and recognition'

Tuesday 13th June

- 9am-10.10am Quinn White, Harvard University
'Amazing, troubling art: non-summative aesthetic judgements'
- 10.30-11.40 Romy Eskens, Utrecht University
'Mental wronging'
- 12pm-1.10pm Sandy Diehl, New York University
'Recognition as actualisation'
- 2.10-3.20 Kirstine La Cour, University College London
'Why should self-respecting people protest'
- 3.50-5pm James Lewis, University of Birmingham
'Togetherness, separation, and aesthetic subjectivity'

Generously supported by:

LEVERHULME
TRUST _____

SAP Society for Applied
Philosophy